

Renting from Charlotte Friends Meeting

By making our facility available to others, we seek to ensure full use of the resources entrusted to us and support the efforts of others with like-minded values.

OUR FACILITY

Our meeting house is situated on five acres of woodlands with ample parking and walking trails to a quiet stream. It is located in northeast Mecklenburg County, approximately fifteen minutes from downtown and five minutes from the UNC Charlotte campus.

Overlooking the woods and stream, this well-crafted facility includes a large, open and carpeted meeting room with flexible seating for up to 125 people, a kitchen, a dining/community room, three smaller meeting rooms and a nursery. Full-length windows throughout the facility draw in natural light and provide a connection with the outdoors.

ABOUT THE USE OF THIS FACILITY

This facility is available for programs and activities that are in keeping with our Quaker testimonies and values. The entire facility or selected rooms can be rented. This is a smoke free facility and is accessible for people who use wheelchairs or have mobility impairments.

FEES

Rental rates have been established to recover the costs incurred in owning and maintaining this property. Requests for reductions will be considered. Discounts are available for long-term use. Both security deposit and rental fee must be paid in advance of the scheduled activity.
